

NOTICE OF FILING

INSTRUCTIONS

The enclosed Notice of Filing form should be completed and signed by the applicant, notarized, and published at least once a week for two (2) consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation. The newspaper publishing the notice shall have a physical address within the county of the proposed location of the business. If the county does not have a newspaper, then the publication shall be placed in a newspaper with the nearest physical address of the location of the business identified in the application.

You are advised that it will be your responsibility to prove that the newspaper you select is of general circulation, should this issue ever be raised in any litigation involving your publication.

The Proof of Publication, which you obtain from the newspaper, must be submitted to ABC Administration before any action will be taken on your application.

PLEASE NOTE: The Notice of Filing must run in the applicant's name. If it is published in another person's name, no action will be taken on the application; and, you will be required to publish the ad again (at your own cost) in the correct person's name for the necessary number of times.
